

Your Ultimate (and Fun!) Packing List for Sri Lanka

Ready for your Sri Lankan adventure? Here's what to pack — plus some fun facts to get you excited about this amazing island!

Clothing

Lightweight, breathable clothes (cotton or linen) — It's tropical here, so keep it cool! Fun fact: Sri Lanka has two monsoon seasons, so a rain jacket might just be your new best friend.

Long-sleeved shirts & pants — Perfect for avoiding those sneaky mosquitoes and staying sun-safe. Did you know? Sri Lanka is home to over 200 species of butterflies — wear some long sleeves and you might spot a few fluttering by!

Modest outfits for temples — Cover your shoulders and knees to show respect. Bonus: Temples are some of the most peaceful places you'll visit, with centuries of history in every corner.

Swimwear — Beaches here are legendary! Fun fact: Sri Lanka's coastline stretches over 1,300 km — plenty of spots to splash and relax.

Comfy shoes or sandals — For trekking, exploring ruins, or dancing at a local festival. Sri Lanka's ancient cities have thousands of steps and paths — you'll want comfy feet!

Hat & sunglasses — Because that tropical sun means serious style and serious protection.

Accessories & Essentials

Reusable water bottle — Help protect the environment by ditching plastic! Bonus: Tap water isn't always drinkable, so you'll want to refill with safe water.

Sunscreen — SPF is your best friend here. Sri Lanka gets plenty of sunshine, so slather it on!

Insect repellent — Mosquitoes love tropical climates, but we love staying bite-free!

Small daypack — Perfect for carrying your camera, snacks, and souvenirs (because you will want to shop).

Travel adapter — Sri Lanka uses type D and G plugs, so don't get caught without the right one!

Tech & Documents

Smartphone & charger — For epic selfies and navigating the beautiful landscapes.

Camera — Trust us, you'll want to capture those stunning tea plantations and leopard sightings!
